

The advertisement features a red canister vacuum cleaner on the left side, with a long black flexible hose and a black upright tube leading to a motorized floor head. The background is a circular inset showing a modern living room with a white sofa, a coffee table, and large windows with blinds. The text 'American Micronic' is prominently displayed in a bold, dark blue font across the center-right. A red banner at the bottom right contains the text 'Vacuum Cleaner' in white, with '1000W Motor- High Suction Power' written below it in a smaller white font on a dark blue background.
